- 1. The rolling stock of the Hungarian State Railways MAV comprised a total of:
  - 45,000 freight cars in circulation in 1954

42,000 freight cars in circulation in 1955.

- To this figure should be added a further 12 percent to allow for cars under repair or temporarily out of commission at any time.
- 3. The difference of 3000 cars between the 1954 and 1955 totals was caused by the large number taken permanently out of commission as no longer serviceable and not replaced. The was because of inadequate maintenance and repair, bad handling, and a shortage of materials and parts.

Comment: These figures have been rounded out to the nearest thousand.
